TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. If the weather or any other circumstances beyond the control of E-Aquanauts cause the course to be delayed, changed or cancelled, no liability can be accepted by the aforesaid party for consequential loss, damage or expense incurred.
2. Candidates are expected to provide their own equipment, to enable a safe scuba diving and course completion. Equipment shall be in full working order, within service and warranted by the manufacturer as suitable for use with the intended gases for the course.
3. Candidates using the E-Aquanauts equipment for any course are responsible for that equipment and will be charged for any loss or damage arising from damage at full retail price for replacement or repair.
4. Candidates may not participate in diving activities without a satisfactorily completed medical statement.
5. Candidates shall act in an appropriate manner to ensure they do not unduly endanger themselves or others.
6. Candidates understand that the granting of final certification will be dependent upon meeting all certification criteria "Education is bought, certification is earned"
7. Candidates will be responsible for payment of site fees, boat fees and all gas fees, as required.
8. We reserve the right to charge for any additional tuition that may be required at the rate of £100 per day and additional expenses incurred.
9. Candidates enter into a learning agreement with E-Aquanauts and must fulfil their responsibilities as detailed in the learning agreement overleaf.
10. Neither E-Aquanauts nor its employees can be held responsible for damage to equipment or injury caused by negligence or otherwise.
11. CANCELLATION: Provided that written notice is received at least 14 working days prior to the start of the course, the fees paid will be refunded less costs of materials and an administration charge of £50 + VAT
12. No refund of fees can be made once the course has commenced.
13. I understand that the information I have provided will be kept on a computerised information system and will be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

I have read, understood and agree the additional terms and conditions of booking.
